Independent hearing aid providers come out on top

Keith Donaghy - your local independent Audiologist

ACCORDING to a "WHICH" report carried out in March and April 2014 Independent hearing aid providers were rated as the most satisfactory compared to Boots, Amplifon, Specsavers and Hidden Hearing.

An independent hearing aid audiologist is able to prescribe hearing aids from all manufacturers and find the exact system to suit your needs and budget. However some of the high street hearing aid retailers are tied to specific manufacturers therefore giving a limited choice.

Buying a hearing aid system is not just about the cost of the aid itself, you are purchasing an on-going package and so other things to consider are:-

1. Who is going to fit my hearing aids, and will I subsequently see the same person?
2. What is the level of ongoing aftercare and support after your hearing aids have been fitted?
3. Is the aftercare and support included in the price of the hearing aid system?
4. What is the length of the manufacturers warranty?
5. Can you trial the hearing system?
6. What are the ongoing costs i.e. batteries and wax guards?

Beware, some companies offer free guides on hearing aids and follow these up with home visits. They are often lead generation companies who operate in a sales based way. They may sell your information on to other large hearing aid providers who will target you with mail and telephone calls to entice you to buy their hearing aid systems. The same can also be said for websites which appear to offer comparatively low priced hearing aids.

If you are thinking of purchasing a hearing system it is important to compare the cost with a like for like hearing aid system and what aftercare is included. If the aftercare is not included in the cost of the system then how much will it typically cost you over the life of your hearing aids.

It can take time to fit and adjust a hearing system correctly so that it is working to maximise your hearing. Without a professional, attentive fitting, and programming by an experienced audiologist and a reliable aftercare service in place it is possible that your hearing aids will end up in a drawer somewhere because they failed to give you the benefits that you expected.

The difference between a good and a bad hearing aid solution is not usually the aid itself, since most aids are made by a handful of manufacturers. It's more to do with the professional fit and service given by the provider. Hearing aids are only as good as the expertise of the dispensing audiologist.

Keith Donaghy is an independent hearing aid audiologist with over 27 years experience of prescribing hearing aid systems in the Oxfordshire area. A consultation with him is FREE and he will happily help and advise you which, if necessary, hearing system will suit your lifestyle and budget the best. All with no obligation, what have you got to lose?

£1million Hadden Hill leisure development postponed

SPORTS PITCH PLAN ON HOLD

Full steam ahead for town leaders

CIVIC leaders took a trip back in time at Didcot Railway Centre last weekend.

Mayor of Didcot Scott Wilgrove, a volunteer guard at the centre, hosted an event for dignitaries from across the county on January 10.

They rode in a 102-year old railway carriageway and on the footplate of a 75-year-old pannier tank locomotive.

Didcot Town Council wants to buy 25 acres of land off the A4130 to build outdoor pitches.

Councillors have held talks with officers at South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC).

However, town council leader Eleanor Hards says they must wait until a sports provision study is published later this year before submitting a planning application.

Even then the report must conclude there is a shortfall of facilities in the town.

Cllr Hards said: "It will have a bearing on things.

"That is or part of the reason why we are waiting to put in a planning application.

"SODC say there is no sufficient evidence until they produce that report."

Didcot resident Marie Hamilton, 53, questioned the need to spend taxpayers' money on a new facility.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

She said: "From what I can gather it will be added to the council tax bills.

"The amount of money is horrific."

She wrote to town clerk Dominic Stapleton asking if the town's current facilities at Edmonds Park, Loyd Recreation Ground and Ladygrove Park are fully booked.

According to the town council, Edmonds Park and Loyd Recreation Ground are "well utilised", but Ladygrove Park is used on a "more informal basis".

However, Mr Stapleton later confirmed in an email to Ms Hamilton that the pitches at Ladygrove had not been booked since the 2012/13 season.

Brenda Andrews, the town council's outdoor services manager, said the pitches had been offered to clubs.

Lib Fest to honour Witney schoolgirl

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A FESTIVAL in memory of Witney 14-year-old Liberty Baker, who was killed walking to school last June, is to be held in the town this year.

Family and friends are organising Lib Fest, a day of events including a fun run and music, to take place in Witney on June 27.

It marks almost a year to the day since Liberty was hit by a car as she was walking along Curbridge Road to The Henry Box School on June 30.

Lib Fest is the latest in a series of events held in Liberty's honour, including a silent disco and the releasing of hundreds of balloons in Witney.

The festival is being organised by Liberty's friends Perry Kerslake and Kieran Butler, who said: "Liberty was a kind, loving girl that would do anything for anybody and expect nothing in return.

"The day will be Lib's day to remember her by and do some activities she loved so much – hopefully this will become a yearly thing."

Plans for the festival include a five kilometre fun run around Witney.

At The Leys there will be a activities including a climbing wall and bouncy castle.

Corn Street-based club Fat Lil's will also be hosting a number of live bands for the festival.

Mayor of Witney Jeanette Baker backed the festival.

She said: "I think it's just an absolutely brilliant idea.

"The young people involved first approached me last year, and I've been really happy to support them.

"There's much to be commended.

"They've not been frightened to ask questions and it has been excellent working with them.

"I think it will be a success, and we'll encourage the memory of Liberty to continue."

Bampton teenager Robert Blackwell has been charged with causing death by dangerous driving.

He is scheduled to submit a plea at Oxford Crown Court on March 6.

Missing puppy

POLICE believe a stolen Bulldog puppy worth £16,000 could be in the Oxford area.

Thames Valley Police launched an appeal yesterday for information about its whereabouts.

The rare lilac British Bulldog puppy was taken from a breeder's home in Tadworth, Surrey, on October 17 last year.

Five men aged between 24 and 27 from Oxford have been arrested in connection with the theft.

They have been bailed until February 19 and 20.

Investigating officer Det Con Eloise Lock said: "I am calling for the public's help as we still need to find the puppy and return her to the rightful owner."

She added: "If you have noticed any unusual behaviour by your neighbours, or anybody you know in relation to any new pets they have, we need to hear from you."

Call police on their 101 number with information.

SOUTHMOOR: Five men have been arrested on suspicion of hunting offences after they were caught by police at 8.55am last Friday morning.

Officers had received reports of hare coursing at Southmoor, and when they attended people and dogs ran away across fields towards Hanney.

The men, aged from 19 to 58 and all from Pontypool in Wales, have been bailed until February 9.

Murder denied

ABINGDON: A woman charged with the murder of Faringdon man Robert Dobinson in Abingdon on October 19 pleaded not guilty at Oxford Crown Court yesterday morning.

He was taken to the John Radcliffe Hospital in Oxford afterwards, where he died of his injuries.

The start of the trial has been set for Tuesday, April 7, at Oxford Crown Court.

Man jailed for ignoring his restraining order

A 24-YEAR-OLD man was sentenced to nine months in prison at Oxford Crown Court last Monday for breaching a restraining order five times in the space of a year.

John Tom Loveridge, 24, of no fixed abode, pleaded guilty to breaking a five-year restraining order preventing him from contacting an Oxford woman.

He was sentenced to a total of nine months in jail for breaching the order on September 28 and 29, and ordered to pay the victim £100.

Detective constable Tim Hawley said: "This sentence reflects the severity of the situation, where the offender repeatedly breached the restraining order imposed upon him.

"This order prevented him from contacting the subject by any means, directly in person or indirectly through phonecalls, text or social media.

"He repeatedly breached this – five times in a year – ending with twice in two days in September.

"This is extremely distressing for the subject of the order and it will be a great relief to her that he will be locked up for the next nine months."

Town council budget leads to rise in tax

TAXPAYERS will be hit by a 2.2 per cent increase on their council bills from the beginning of April.

Didcot Town Council approved its 2015-16 budget by 11 votes to five at a meeting at the Civic Hall in Britwell Road on Monday.

It will see residents pay an extra £2.30 a year in council tax with the authority setting out a planned expenditure of just over £1million.

The town council's Labour leader Eleanor Hards said a reason for the increase was a cut in council tax base reduction money from South Oxfordshire District Council.

This is a central government grant used to keep down town council tax bills, but this year's provision is £9,205 less than the previous year.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Cllr Hards said: "This grant is gradually being phased out but the loss of income to the town council is greater because we have a provision of a high number of people still getting council tax benefit.

"It affects Didcot and places like Berinsfield."

Opposition councillors have been critical of the council tax increase and a six per cent rise in expenditure compared to last year.

An extra £500 has been put forward for civic functions.

And allotment rent is also going up by £500 from £8,000 to £8,500.

While £25,000 will be set aside for contingency funds - down from last year's contingency fund of £30,000.

Liberal Democrat David Rouane put forward proposals, including cutting the contingency to £15,000, to freeze council tax but still increase expenditure by 4.5 per cent.

He said: "I don't think it is right to put up council tax in these times where everyone else is pulling their belts in.

"I don't think my proposals were very radical."

Cllr Rouane added: "In a time of austerity increasing the civic functions budget was just giving an already disaffected public a big stick to beat us with."

However, Cllr Hards said the comments were "remissive" and that a £500 increase to £3,000 was for anniversaries to commemorate the First World War.

She added: "It is very likely that we are going to want to do things connected with the world wars.

"It is just making sure that the money is there if there is something specific that we want to do."

The council has also set aside £70,000 for unidentified future projects, but Cllr Hards confirmed it is intended to help fund plans to turn land at Hadden Hill into a sports facility.

However, Independent councillor Neville Harris said the ambiguity in the description shows a "lack of transparency".

He added: "The council's leaders should tell residents why they are squirreling cash away.

"A freeze on tax was entirely feasible this year."

Conservative councillor Tony Harbour added: "We were disappointed they were not able to come up with a nil increase budget in times of increasing hardship.

"A couple of alternative suggestions were put forward which would have achieved this with little impact to the remainder of the budget.

"The contingency is also far too high."

£1m Hadden Hill pitches on hold

• From front page

She said: "If people don't want to use the pitch there is nothing we can do about it.

"It is used informally and there is a big need for that, it is not just all organised football."

Councillors voted in support of Hadden Hill by 12 votes to eight at a meeting in April last year despite a consultation revealing more residents were against than for the plans.

The Oxfordshire Guardian has previously reported concerns about the safety of the site after four fatalities on the A4130 since 2005.

Ms Hamilton added: "Surely by opening a sports facility we will add more traffic."

Opposition to the plans also argue that SODC, and not the town council, holds the responsibility of providing sports facilities.

Town, district and county councillor Neville Harris opposes the plans and said he shares Ms Hamilton's concerns.

He said: "Marie Hamilton's determination to establish the facts as to the non-use of sports facilities on Ladygrove by organised clubs is a fundamental point for consideration.

"I share her view that the spending of millions of pounds of taxpayers cash on the purchase and development of Hadden Hill would be a folly too far."

Didcot A plans

DIDCOT: A consultation into the redevelopment of Didcot A Power Station by Milton Park will be held at Cornerstone in Station Road between 10am and 2pm on Saturday.

Developers Clowes and Graftongate want to build 400 homes, a pub, hotel and employment and retail space at the site.

The Oxfordshire Guardian previously reported that a planning application could be submitted during the early part of this year.

The coal-fired power station shut in 2013 and is being demolished but gas-fired Didcot B is still running.

New homes

DIDCOT: Developers Bovis Homes want to build 74 new homes off Hadden Hill next to the Tesco superstore.

An application was submitted to South Oxfordshire District Council on January 7 and a decision could be made on March 4.

Forty-five of the properties would be available on the market for sale, 22 for rent and seven as affordable housing.

Charity night

DIDCOT: Fundraising organisation Play2Give will be kicking-off their year at Didcot Town Football Club's Loop Meadow Stadium in Bowmont Water next month.

The event, which will take place on February 21 from 7pm, will raise money for the John Radcliffe Paediatric Eye Fund and Headway Oxfordshire.

There will be a sponsored chilli-eating contest, a fireworks display and disco.

Sex predator jailed for over 12 years

THE former head of an Oxfordshire children's home who preyed on boys over a six-year period was jailed for more than 12 years on Monday.

Rodney Smallman, 73, of Erica Close, Banbury, was sentenced to 12-and-a-half years by a judge at Oxford Crown Court for sexual offences against children under the age of 16.

Smallman was convicted on December 19 by a jury after pleading not guilty to 15 counts of indecent assault between 1976 and 1982.

He was arrested in February 2013 and charged that August after a victim told police about the sexual abuse.

Investigating officer Det Con Joanne Waddington described the abuse suffered by the victims as "horrific".

She added: "They have to continue living with what Smallman did every day but thanks to their courage in coming forward, he now faces a long time behind bars."

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Adrian Foster, chief crown prosecutor for Thames and Chiltern Crown Prosecution Service, said Smallman "abused his position of trust".

He continued: "As the head of the home, Rodney Smallman took advantage of his status to prey on young boys and sexually abuse them for his own sexual gratification.

Mr Foster added: "The emotional impact, on the victims and their families, of the abhorrent actions of this man is impossible to quantify."

Help for ex-offenders

MORE than £200,000 has been awarded to Oxfordshire's councils and probation service to help prevent ex-offenders from becoming homeless following their release from prison.

Cherwell District Council submitted the claim for funding to the Department for Communities and Local Government's Single Homeless Fund.

Together with the four other district councils, the county council and the probation service, they were awarded a total of £227,362.

The money will be used by the group to improve housing opportunities for single ex-offenders to ensure they have somewhere to live upon their release.

Debbie Pickford, Cherwell's lead member for housing, said: "Often it is very difficult for offenders to integrate back into society as they face the challenges of finding suitable accommodation and a job to sustain it.

"It is important that all the relevant authorities work together and share information to provide the best possible support, circumstances and aid to prevent homelessness and ensure successful rehabilitation.

"This joint bid allows us to work together to prevent as many ex-offenders as possible from becoming homeless in the future."

Part of the funding will be used to provide two posts at the probation service to establish links to supporting organisations such as Thames Valley Police, housing providers and support services.

The Single Homeless Fund was announced by government in June last year, with £8million being set aside for the scheme.

Communities minister Stephen Williams said: "This government is determined to protect the most vulnerable people in our communities and give them the help they need to get their lives back on track."

It is part of a private carriage collection of more than 150 lots dating back to the 1600s.

They have never before been exhibited, and it will be the first time the collection has been on show to the public.

The sale at Bonhams' auction rooms in Banbury Road at Shipton-on-Cherwell, near Kidlington, starts at 11am.

"During the past 30 years this fascinating collection has been lovingly maintained and painstakingly restored, and occasionally used in international carriage competition by their Dutch owner," said Rob Hubbard, Bonhams' motoring specialist.

"It's quite rare for such a vast single-owner collection of this quality to come to market, so it has attracted some great international attention."

Built by coachbuilders Adams & Hooper, it would have been used by nobility on tours of Britain and Europe.

It is thought it was also used by King William IV on long trips.

Homeless man jailed for Headington burglaries

A HOMELESS 42-year-old man who burgled jewellery and electronics from two Headington homes has been sentenced to three years in prison.

Clifford Edmonds, of no fixed abode, pleaded guilty at Oxford Crown Court on January 5 to the burglaries.

The first was on October 22 last year, when Edmonds broke in to a house in Northway through an unsecure door.

And the second was on October 25 when he gained entry into a house in Tilehouse Close.

Edmonds was sentenced to three years in prison for the Tilehouse Close burglary and 12 months to the Northway break-in, with both to run concurrently.

Investigating officer PC Stuart McLaren said: "This conviction demonstrates the important work local neighbourhood teams do in the community.

"Following a series of burglaries in the area, the local neighbourhood team identified Edmonds as a suspect.

"Having located and arrested him, they recovered stolen property from burglaries at Tilehouse Close and Northway in his possession.

"This conviction will hopefully bring closure to those victims involved."

Brookes to leave Wheatley as part of £130m upgrade

OXFORD Brookes University is to abandon its Wheatley campus as part of £130million plans to expand its sites in Headington and Harcourt Hill.

The move, announced by the university on Monday, will see all of the teaching, research and support activity moved from Wheatley to the other campuses from next year.

It will kickstart a revamp programme and possible new builds at Headington and Harcourt Hill over the next 10 years.

The Faculty of Business will move from Wheatley in 2016/17, while the relocation of the Faculty of Technology, Design and Environment is expected to be in 2021/22.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Professor Janet Beer, vice chancellor of Brookes, said: "Oxford Brookes has always attracted some of the highest calibre staff and students entering higher education.

"It is essential that the university can continue to provide the best possible experience for its staff and students.

"This means that we need to invest in our facilities over the coming years and I am confident that the 10 year plan is the best way to achieve this."

The first buildings at Headington to be modernised will be Clerici, Sinclair and the former library, with further plans to improve the Helena Kennedy, sports centre, Abercrombie, Fuller, Headington Hill Hall, Main Hall, old Refectory, Tonge and Gibbs buildings.

The majority of buildings at Harcourt Hill will also be refurbished.

Staff and students are to be consulted on the prioritisation of this.

Plans for the Wheatley campus after all services have moved from the site have not yet been revealed.

Geoff Donnelly, chair of Brookes' board of governors, said: "The university knows from recent experience about the transformative impact of new facilities and buildings.

"Both the Abercrombie and the John Henry Brookes buildings have significantly enhanced the learning environment, as well as the look and feel of the Headington Campus – but we can't stop there."

"The community's positive reaction to the completed John Henry Brookes building illustrate that the university can achieve great things for the local landscape as well as for its students and staff.

"This is something we are committed to continuing."

Bicester's new Tesco will still go ahead

TESCO'S plans for a new store in Bicester will still go ahead, despite the supermarket giant announcing they have axed plans for 49 new sites across the country.

Proposals had been put forward to build a larger store next to the A41 Oxford Road and move from their current site in Pingle Drive.

Tesco chief executive officer Dave Lewis issued a statement last Thursday confirming their intention to go ahead with the new store the same day it revealed 49 shops were axed.

It read: "We've carefully reviewed our planned new store developments across the country and it remains our intention to open our planned store in Bicester."

Tesco received planning permission for the new store from Cherwell District Council in 2013.

Around 250 additional jobs are expected to be created.

Norman Bolster, the council's lead member for estates and economies, said: "Tesco has had to make some difficult decisions in light of recent financial reports, so it inspires confidence to know they are proceeding in Bicester.

"The fact that Tesco is willing to invest demonstrates the strength of the economy here in Bicester and this will only continue to grow with the arrival of the new store."

In a separate application, Bicester Village has received planning consent to develop the existing Tesco site to expand its retail space.

Scientists pay tribute to "one of the greats"

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

TRIBUTES have been paid to "one of the greats of British science", Mary Lyon, who died at her Drayton home near Abingdon on Christmas Day.

Ms Lyon, who passed away at the age of 89 on December 25, had worked as a geneticist at the Medical Research Council (MRC) in Harwell for 35 years until her retirement in 1990.

• Mary Lyon (picture courtesy of MRC)

She is most famous for the discovery of X inactivation.

She suggested one of the two X chromosomes in the cells of a female mammal is randomly inactivated during early development.

She received many honours including the Wolf Prize in Medicine, and in 2004 a new research facility at Harwell was named the Mary Lyon Centre.

MRC Harwell has paid tribute to Ms Lyon in a statement on its website.

It says: "Mary was a colleague and friend to all of us, and was pivotal in leading and developing mouse genetics at Harwell.

"Her accomplishments were widely recognised by many international honours and prizes, and she was a formidable icon to all woman making their way in science.

"We celebrate her life and contributions to genetics - she was one of the greats of British science."

Ms Lyon's funeral will take place tomorrow at South Oxfordshire Memorial Park and Crematorium in Garford, near Abingdon, at Midday.

Vote shake-up dropped 12,000

THE principle that every qualified voter is able to cast their ballot is the cornerstone of a healthy democracy.

Unfortunately, the government's shake-up of electoral registration means over 12,000 people have disappeared from the electoral register in Oxford ahead of the 2015 general election. Hundreds of thousands are missing from the rolls across Great Britain.

I broadly welcome the introduction of individual electoral registration, begun under the last Labour government.

I am concerned, though, that the current government has been complacent about the transition from household to individual electoral registration, with terrible effects for levels of registration.

Ministers have jettisoned tried and tested methods, with the result that they have dropped many eligible voters off the registers.

We have not seen this level of de-registering since the early 1990s when 600,000 voters took their names off the register in an attempt to avoid payment of Margaret Thatcher's Poll Tax.

Certain groups who are qualified to vote will be especially under-represented under the new system -especially mobile people who move from home to home, often within the same calendar year – such as young private renters and students, and people whose first language is not English and may come from ethnic minorities.

You can help by going online at gov.uk/register-to-vote to register - it takes less than five minutes. Don't let the electoral shake-up rob you of your vote.

Cyclist crash

BICESTER: A 40-year-old cyclist is being treated for serious injuries at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Oxford after colliding with a van on the A41 on December 31.

At 5.30am, a white Mercedes Sprinter van collided with a cyclist near Graven Hill.

They were both travelling in the same direction towards Bicester.

Con-man jailed

GORING: A builder who conned a Goring pensioner out of more than £4,000 has been jailed for 18 months.

Mark Cooper, 48, of Stovolds Hill, Cranleigh, was sentenced at Winchester Crown Court on January 7.

Cooper cold-called the victim, who is in his 80s, claiming his roof was leaking and needed repairing.

The pensioner paid £2,500 but when he believed the work had been done, Cooper said he would be back the next day to finish the job and pocketed a further £1,800.

It was also agreed the felt underneath the roof needed replacing at a cost of £2,000 and Cooper would carry out the work on November 18.

But the victim called Trading Standards at Oxfordshire County Council who arrested Cooper on his return.

Experts confirmed the roof was not leaking and the work carried was unnecessary.

Doctor's lifesaving work set to live on after his shocking death

THE work of an Oxford doctor who died last year is to continue - after a campaign was launched to raise funds for an ultrasound scanner to help save lives of kidney transplant patients.

Nilay Patel, a consultant urological surgeon at the Churchill Hospital, died suddenly last May aged 36 following a chest infection that spread to his heart.

He had been working with colleagues to make Oxford the main centre for complex kidney surgery, and on a particular technique to remove tumours from a kidney outside the body.

The kidney needs to be checked after the operation by ultrasound scanning, but any delay could cause the kidney to die.

So to ensure the Churchill Hospital always has a scanner available, Nilay's wife Seetal helped start a campaign to raise £30,000 for charity Urology Cancer Research and Education (UCARE) to buy a new scanner for the hospital.

"He was always so dedicated to his profession and cared very deeply for his patients," said Seetal.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"I knew what this meant to him, and how proud he was that he could save and improve lives.

"Since his sudden passing, I have been inspired to help build a lasting legacy for him."

The operation sees a patient have their kidney taken out, the tumours removed, the kidney reconstructed and then transplanted back into the body.

Over the next few hours there is a risk of the arteries and veins becoming blocked.

So an ultrasound scan needed to monitor this.

Professor David Cranston, a kidney cancer surgeon who worked closely with Nilay, said: "We want to raise £30,000 for a fairly basic ultrasound machine in memory of Nilay.

"When he broke the news to the department he'd died very suddenly, everybody was in shock and lots of tears were shed.

"He was absolutely brilliant, a competent surgeon clinically and a delight to work with."

• Nilay Patel

Val Berry, senior executive at UCARE, said: "One of the important things to do is be able to do a scan right after the operation.

"If you have to wait for a scanner, then you're losing vital time.

"So what we hope to do is raise this money so the scanner is there and it can be used exactly when it's needed.

"It's a really important piece of equipment."

The campaign has already raise more than £1,300.

To make a donation to the campaign, go to justgiving.com/n1lay or contact the charity via ucare-cancer.org.uk.

Funding boost to get youngsters to university

OXFORD Brookes University has been given £150,000 by a government funding body as part of a new scheme to encourage young people to move into higher education.

The Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE) has given Brookes the money to lead a local network of schools, colleges and universities.

They will act as a resource for other institutions in the area, offering support and information to schools and colleges as they prepare their students for higher education.

Alice Wilby, director of UK recruitment at Brookes, said: "We are delighted to take part in what will be a significant resource for schools and colleges to get more young people into higher education who otherwise may not have had the opportunity to do so.

"The relationship with our local and wider community has allowed Oxford Brookes to play an important part in widening participation."

The network Brookes leads will include Oxford University, Activate Learning and Abingdon and Witney College, as well as other centres in Berkshire, Buckinghamshire and Swindon.

Pooh sticks contest hunts for new home

ORGANISERS of the annual World Pooh Sticks Championships are planning a dry land version of the game this year as they hunt for a new location.

The Rotary Club of Oxford Spires has run the event, which sees sticks race down river, at Day's Lock in Little Wittenham on the Thames since 2009.

It is based on the game in AA Milne's Winnie the Pooh tales.

But the village has been hosting the event for 31 years and it usually coincides with the Earth Trust's lambing weekends – which means the site is too busy.

Rotary club spokesperson Lesley Adams said: "We have got to continue it for the sake of all the fans of Winnie the Pooh and everyone who loves playing Pooh sticks.

"We want to make it bigger than it ever has been.

"We would like to keep it in Oxfordshire because it has it roots in the county but it does not have to be the Thames."

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The Pooh sticks event attracts about 1,000 people with more than 600 competitors, but it struggles to facilitate parking.

Ms Adams says the club are looking to move the event to relieve the pressure on the village and so it can be held in the summer.

Currently, the Environment Agency only allows the competition to be held between October and the end of March because of high levels of boat traffic from April.

The club are interested in moving anywhere in Oxford, Abingdon, Didcot, Wallingford or Witney.

Ms Adams added: "The village gets so busy at lambing weekends and there are so many visitors that it is just not big enough for Pooh sticks as well as lambing.

"The Earth Trust can't move because they are based there so we said we would start looking for a new home and venue."

One solution for this year could be to hold it on dry land where string would be used to reel in the sticks fastest, similar to a Santa sleigh race held by the Rotary Club of Maidenhead Bridge.

Ms Adams said: "We're just thinking outside the box to try and find a solution. It would be nice to hold one this year."

Traditionally, players drop a stick into the water from a bridge and the winner is the competitor whose stick appears on the other side first.

If organisers manage to arrange the event at Day's Lock this year it will be held on Sunday, March 29, in the river.

But if they cannot hold the championships there and do not manage to find another location it could be held on dry land somewhere else on another date.

Different Christmas in Didcot

HERE we are at the start of another year. I hope everyone had a good Christmas and that 2015 brings happiness to all.

This Christmas was a little different for the Mayoress and I.

Instead of our usual day with family we made two visits.

The first was to the Didcot Community Hospital where we spent some time with patients and staff.

The second was to the Meadows Day Centre where we met local resident Anna Gatrell.

Anna and her team of volunteers gave up their Christmas to provide Christmas dinner, fun and company for people who would otherwise have been alone.

We were both humbled by the dedication and selflessness of all involved and returned home with a renewed appreciation of our family.

The greater part of my year as mayor is behind me and I can't believe the months are flying past so quickly.

Looking ahead to 2015 there is much to look forward to.

The next big event for us is the Civic Ball, which will take place on February 27.

The ball is a major fundraising event for my charity and promises to be a great night out as well.

I hope to see some of you there.

Hospitals worst for bed blocking

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORDSHIRE'S hospitals are among the worst in the country for bed blocking, figures released by NHS England have revealed.

The John Radcliffe, Churchill, and Nuffield Orthopaedic in Headington, and Banbury's Horton General Hospital topped statistics in England between January 2 and 4 with 163 beds unavailable due to delayed transfers of care.

Between December 29 last year and January 4 this year, they had 568 beds taken up by patients who were well enough to have been transferred.

Oxfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group (OCCG), who work in partnership with the trust, said they were "disappointed" but not surprised by the figures.

A spokesperson said: "The increase in numbers since November 2014 is disappointing but to be expected when more people become ill at this time of year with flu and colds, especially the elderly.

"Whilst the pressures are heightened, the Oxfordshire health system has worked to ensure the quality of patient care has been maintained."

Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust runs all four hospitals.

Scrutiny organisation Healthwatch Oxfordshire say the figures are evident of long-term concerns.

CEO Rachel Coney added: "It is very disappointing and frustrating to see the lack of progress on resolving this issue.

"The different agencies involved need to stop remaking and revisiting plans, and instead focus on undertaking the plans that they already have."

She continued: "From February, our trained volunteers will be out and about talking to people about their experience of being discharged."

The NHS England figures, published last week, also revealed 14,307 beds were blocked countrywide due to delayed transfers of care between December 29 and January 4.

A Department of Health spokesperson said: "While long waits to be discharged are unacceptable, there are actually fewer as a proportion of hospital admissions over the last few years.

"But we know there are issues in some areas and hospitals are working with the social care system to resolve this."

They added: "We have given the NHS an extra £700million for thousands more doctors, nurses and beds this winter."

Decision delay

OXFORD: A decision on whether to approve extensive redevelopment plans for Jericho boatyard has been deferred.

Oxford City Council's west area planning committee have decided to delay making a decision to give councillors a chance to visit the site beforehand.

The application for 23 houses, community centre, boatyard, restaurant, public square and bridge could now be considered at their next meeting on February 10 instead.

Pongathon

OXFORD: The first inter-company table tennis league is to begin in the city on January 27.

The Pongathon City Challenge will see businesses register their doubles teams, before being drawn to face other companies in a group stage-style competition.

A knockout final will determine the winners, to represent the city in the National Pongathon City Challenge Finals in London later in the year.

Teams need to register by January 23. Go to pongathoncitychallenge.com.

Pool appeal

OXFORD: A community group who fought to keep Temple Cowley Pools open has insisted their campaign is not finished yet, despite the pool being closed by Oxford City Council last month.

Save Temple Cowley Pools have said they are planning to challenge the council's decision to close the pool in favour of using the site for housing, which was made on December 23.

They are holding a public meeting on Saturday to discuss their plans.

It is running from 6pm to 7pm at Temple Cowley United Reformed Church Hall on Oxford Road.

Charity founder Nicola wins first of top royal honours

AN OXFORD charity founder is celebrating after finding out she is one of the first ever winners of the Queen's Young Leaders Award for her charity work.

Nicola Byrom, a teacher at Oxford University's St John's and Somerville Colleges, was told she had won the prestigious award on Monday.

The 27-year-old was chosen for her work championing student mental health, and founding a charity called Student Minds.

It supports students struggling with problems such as eating disorders by encouraging them to speak about it with friends and others dealing with similar problems.

Nicola will collect her award from the Queen in London in June.

"It's incredibly exciting to have won," said Nicola. "I set up the charity because I really passionately believe in peer support."

Nicola decided to set up the charity after experiencing mental health problems as a teenager, and finding it difficult when she moved to university.

She added: "I think I became very aware at university that a lot of people really struggle to find that network of support.

"So it's a powerful experience for them to meet other students with the same issues."

Nicola is one of 60 young people aged 18 to 29 from across the Commonwealth to be given the award, and one of just three from the UK.

Dr Astrid Bonfield, chief executive of The Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Trust, said: "The leadership of talented young people in all spheres of life can transform communities and societies for the better.

"The Queen's Young Leaders programme is poised to unlock the potential of this diverse and talented group of young people and we are delighted to be supporting them to go further and achieve more."

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

The flaws of a funnyman

COMEDIAN, novelist, radio presenter and all round nice guy Mark Watson is bringing his brand new tour 'Flaws' to the Oxford Playhouse on January 22.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The 34-year-old is known for appearing on panel shows such as 'Mock the Week' and 'Have I Got News for You', whilst also being a regular act at the annual Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

And despite being born in Bristol, he is also known to deliver his act with a Welsh accent; a trick that gave him confidence when he started his stand-up career.

"I don't really use the Welsh accent anymore," Mark told the Guardian.

"But when I started out it was a good way of hiding behind a persona and discovering a comic voice that was a bit different from my own.

"So it gave me courage to get up on stage without feeling too much like myself. Also, some words sound funnier like 'monkey' for example."

He comes to the Beaumont Street theatre off the back of a very eventful 2014, which saw the comedian write a new radio show, novel, and become a father for a second time.

However, the show will dissect into some of the demons of Mark's life, which includes an early midlife crisis.

"As the title suggests, it's about the ways we fail and the shortcomings of my personality specifically.

"I talk about self-esteem issues, drinking, poor relationships with other humans, all sorts of relatively dark subjects, while still trying to keep it entertaining."

He added: "This show has been polished over quite a long period, starting with a full run at the Edinburgh Festival and then doing 40-odd tour shows last year.

"So it's at quite an advanced stage, which means there's room for me to improvise and vary the show from night to night. So the audience should expect a show that's packed with jokes but also has an element of the unpredictable."

The show is suitable for anyone aged 15 and over, with tickets costing from £15. Visit oxfordplayhouse.com for more information.

We want to create an attractive entrance to Didcot, providing a welcoming environment for residents and visitors. To achieve this, South Oxfordshire District Council is drawing up plans for the creation of 'Didcot Gateway'.

Didcot Gateway will be a mixed-use development introducing a new hotel, areas to hold business meetings, shops, leisure facilities, and public space in which to spend time with friends or while you wait for a train. There will also be a number of high-quality new homes for rent and sale.

Saxophonist's smooth tunes

AWARD winning jazz tenor saxophonist Simon Spillett will be performing at The Oxford Wine Café on January 25.

The 40-year old will perform in a trio at the South Parade venue, with John Critchinson on the piano and Paul Jefferies on the double bass.

Paul is also events organiser at The Oxford Wine Café.

"I performed there last year in the company of pianist John Critchinson," Simon told the Guardian.

"We had a great time and it's lovely to be asked to return to such a welcoming, convivial atmosphere."

The musician and writer first fell in love with jazz when he started to listen to his father's record collection.

After releasing his debut album, 'Introducing Simon Spillett' in 2006 - which received widespread airplay on jazz radio stations - awards and nominations have come in thick and fast.

In 2007, his second album, 'Sienna Red' was nominated in the best album category at the BBC Jazz Awards, and scooped the critics' poll for Best Jazz Album of 2008/09 in Jazz Journal International.

"Success is a hard thing to quantify," Simon explained.

"I know that although I've reached a certain level of success career-wise, the saxophone will continue to provide a lifetime of challenges.

"However, looking back on some of the things I have already achieved, I feel I've come a long, long way since I first started playing.

"Winning awards is always nice – whatever anyone says to the contrary, to see your name on an award contributes a great deal to your sense of self-belief.

"As for a highlight – that's a difficult one. I suppose the moment that I realised my own band was comprised of some of my heroes who I'd grown up listening to. That makes you pinch yourself."

The free event starts at 6.30pm and finishes at 9pm.

Welcome to The Lamb Inn

A traditional and beautiful 18th Century Cotswold village pub.

We have settled here after a number of years working in some of the finest hotels and restaurants across the UK. Our aim is to offer a relaxed, welcoming village pub with great service, ambience and creatively home cooked food, produced in our kitchen.

Enjoy the atmosphere of a classic old English inn with beams and a real log fire crackling away on a cold winters night. Settle down with a pint of your favourite Brakspears ale or whatever your favourite tipple is.

Dogs are allowed in the bar area making us perfect for all those enjoying a good country walk or ramble with well behaved four legged friends.

We support Cotswold businesses and use suppliers such as Castles Butchers in Burford, Butt's Farm near South Cerney and Cacklebean Farm Eggs near Stow on the Wold.

Whether it's a coffee, a quick pint, a light lunch following a long walk, something in your lunch hour from work or a candlelit dinner, The Lamb Inn has something for everyone. We look forward to welcoming you.

Mindspiders comedy show

COMEDIAN, writer and occasional cross-dresser Andrew O'Neill will be at Oxford Playhouse tonight, January 15.

The 35-year old entertainer from Portsmouth brings his brand new 'Mindspiders' tour to the Beaumont Street theatre, where he will deliver his best sarcastic, witty and often dark one-liners.

And after openly admitting that he doesn't always make sense on stage, Andrew said: "The audience can expect all of the words, phrases, songs, anecdotes, lies and incantations my brain has conjured up in the last year".

He added: "There will also be a megaphone and adverts. Oh and some claws.

"There may be some claws too. We'll see. We'll see. We'll see. Eh? We'll see."

His stand-up career started 15 years ago when Andrew O'Neill performed at the Laughing Horse Comedy Club in London.

Since then, the eccentric entertainer has travelled throughout Britain, Europe, the U.S and Australia performing at various comedy clubs, theaters and music festivals.

He has since appeared on hit shows 'Never Mind the Buzzcock's', 'Stewart Lee's Comedy Vehicle' and Steve Coogan's critically acclaimed sit-com 'Saxondal'.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Andrew is also the founder, guitarist and vocalist of the steampunk band, 'The Men That Will Not be Blamed for Nothing', which he started back in 2008.

On being asked what inspired him to start the tour, Andrew said: "I've just cut and pasted everything I've written on Twitter in the last 19 months, so they'll be a lot of re-tweets.

"And quite a lot of the last few jokes will be me saying 'I'm doing this gig in Oxford, you should come' and then give the email address of the theatre.

"I will then close with the classic 'tickets are still available for my gig in Oxford tonight!' bringing it all right up-to-date.

"So don't expect any structure."

It is suitable for over 16s.

Tickets for the show, starting at 7.30pm, cost £8 to £10.

Visit oxfordplayhouse.com for more information.

So he's decided to ask some pretty big questions; what's learning for? Why all the rush? And if all of the politicians and education experts are so smart, how come they never agree on the best way to do things? Jack will tickle your grey matter, probe your beliefs and fill your belly with laughs."

MR TURNER (12A)
With an outstanding performance from Timothy Spall, Mike Leigh's stunning period film moves from the delightfully domestic to the epically grand. Exploring the final years of the great, if eccentric, British painter J.M.W. Turner, this film is a funny, tragical, lyrical and powerful example of a great british artist and his time.

"Matthew McConaughey stars as a real-life Texas cowboy, whose free-wheeling life was overturned in 1985 when he was diagnosed as HIV-positive and given 30 days to live.
In these early days of the AIDS epidemic, the U.S. was divided over how to combat the virus. Ron, now ostracized by many of his old friends, and bereft of effective medicines, took matters in his own hands, tracking down alternative treatments from all over the world by means both legal and illegal. A GIRL WITH A BOOK
"It's October 2012. Gunmen stop a bus in Pakistan and shoot three girls for wanting to go to school. How can a writer respond? Can a Guardian reader really be prejudiced? Knowing nothing about the situation, able to offer little more than outrage this writer was forced to come out from behind his desk and go into the community searching for answers to help him tell the story of a brave young woman's fight for girls' education. When his research uncovers attitudes at odds with his liberal convictions he also has to deal with what he learns about himself."

THE FRESH DIXIE PROJECT
The Fresh Dixie Project have made a real splash on the UK jazz scene with their unique 'crossover swing'. Their energetic sound fuses intense grooves and raucous sax lines with infectious melodies and powerful riffs. Played hard, fast and laced with virtuosity, their songs – a mix of re-vamped swing standards and fresh original material - are said to be 'swinging in the footsteps of Jamie Cullum.' 2014 saw the band sell out the Royal Albert Hall's Elgar Room, and receive standing ovations at Jazz Festivals from Germany to Malaysia.

SAM BAILEY
Sam Bailey stole the hearts of a nation on X Factor and since winning her feet have barely touched the ground. Having wowed fans up and down the country headlining the X Factor Tour earlier this year Sam is set to embark on her very own tour throughout January and February 2015.
The former prison officer has experienced dreams becoming reality; including an incredible No. 1 with her single Skyscraper, supporting Beyonce on tour, performing with her idol Michael Bolton at the National Television Awards and now her own headline tour.
'I've been performing since I was 15 but I never got to where I wanted to be. Then real life, needing to pay bills, marriage and children happened and you just put everything on hold. X Factor gave a woman like me a chance. It gave me my confidence back, it gave me music back, and this is for all those people out there who believed in me!'
Sam Bailey has recently reissued her number one debut album The Power Of Love 2014. The Power of Love features a stunning collection of covers and brand new tracks, all performed with those self assured, spine-tingling vocals that set the country on fire. Her massive hit single Skyscraper, appears alongside her triumphant duet, And I Am Telling You, with Nicole Scherzinger. The album also features five brand new songs – three Christmas themed tracks: Silent Night, O Holy Night and Please Come Home for Christmas along with an alternative version of original track Treasure and an electrifying version of With You, taken from Ghost - The Musical."

Vauxhall's "Grand Slam" tops the car-maker's Adam range with sleek style

Sports car on the starting blocks

REVIEW: Vauxhall Adam "Grand Slam"
By James Richings

DURING its debut on British soil last week the Vauxhall Adam "Grand Slam' edition showcased its latest technical gadgets.

It was unveiled last year at the Geneva and Frankfurt Motor Shows, but made its home-turf entrance at this year's Autosport International in Birmingham's National Exhibition Centre (NEC) last week.

The "Grand Slam" comes to the UK boasting updated mechanisms, attributes and designs.

These include a spirited 1.4-litre turbo engine, as well as a specially-tuned chassis and a VXR braking system.

With 148 horse power and 220Nm of torque, the Adam "Grand Slam" can go from 0-62mph in 8.5 seconds and hit 124mph top speed with its 1.4-litre engine.

It is also decked out with a trendy interior and exterior.

The front lip spoiler, side sill mouldings and an extended rear bumper cut-out with a visible exhaust tailpipe make the bodywork appear more muscular then a standard Adam.

The edition also comes with a total of ten body paint choices and four further roof combinations.

The distinctive rear spoiler above the rear window and the special Adam logo on the C pillars complete the car's look.

Inside the vehicle the driver and front passenger can choose from four different seating types.

Three of them are exclusively available for this Adam, which includes the "Recaro Performance" seats in either Morrocana leather or Nappa leather.

The interior reflects the red design theme in many ways with an optional leather package.

This includes a leather black and red steering wheel, gear knob and handbrake, or red and white lighting for the instrument panels and doors.

The original Vauxhall Adam was first introduced in 2012 and hit the roads at the beginning of 2013.

Orders open for the Adam "Grand Slam" this month.

We will not roll over, says captain May

TOM May says personal pride will ensure London Welsh do not roll over and accept relegation from the Aviva Premiership.

The Exiles are 20 points adrift at the foot of the table after last Sunday's 38-7 defeat at 10th-placed Newcastle Falcons.

And their misery was further compounded as Shane Geraghty's late drop goal earned second bottom London Irish a 28-26 win over Exeter Chiefs.

This leaves both Falcons and Irish 20 points ahead of the Exiles with nine rounds remaining.

May, the team captain, accepts that the margin may be too big to recover but insists Welsh will not give up without a fight.

The 35-year-old, who will retire at the end of the season, said: "It does not mean we will just roll over and die for the rest of the year.

"There is a certain amount of personal pride that goes with that.

"We want to keep trying to improve and the lads work hard week in week out and we will continue to do so."

Welsh conceded three tries in seven first half minutes against a resurgent Falcons side last Sunday, while the Exiles struggled to keep possession.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

May added: "Your not going to recover against anyone, let alone a side that has been doing so well over recent times.

"Defensively we let ourselves down and that is an area we have been working hard on in recent weeks."

He continued: "You have to create your own luck and we have certainly let ourselves down.

"We lack a bit of patience and a bit of quality which costs us the ball.

"Turn it over against these teams and you are punished straight away. We really need to stop doing that."

May will hang up his boots at the end of the season and insists relegation would not tarnish his 16-year career.

He said: "My career is not based on the next six months.

"I will look back on my career and it won't be tarred by how difficult this season has been.

"I still enjoy playing for the club and I look forward to playing every week."

Coach Smith optimistic ahead of European ties

ASSISTANT coach Ollie Smith says victories in Europe and the LV=Cup in the next couple of weeks could help London Welsh in the latter half of their league campaign.

The Exiles are 20 points adrift at the bottom of the Aviva Premiership and without a win this season but take a break from the league over the next four weeks.

Welsh travel to Bordeaux Begles in the European Rugby Challenge Cup tomorrow before hosting Lyon on January 25.

LV=Cup games then follow against Saracens and Newport Gwent Dragons.

The Exiles then return to league action against Sale Sharks on February 15.

Smith said: "If we win one or two games over the next few weeks we suddenly go into those league games in a different place mentally.

"You can't hide from the truth that it has been a very difficult season.

"But if we continue to improve and make these strides then at some point we will get that result."

He added: "There is still a long way to go but it will be a tough task to get out of this.

"We certainly are not giving up and (head coach) Justin Burnell epitomises that."

Brave City knocked out by Woking

OXFORD City's valiant FA Trophy run came to an end on Tuesday night in a narrow 2-1 defeat to Vanarama Conference side Woking.

Former Oxford United midfielder Josh Payne and John Goddard scored as The Cardinals advanced in the second round replay tie.

City did brilliantly to force a replay last Saturday with Greg Pearson and Declan Benjamin netting as the Hoops came back from 2-0 down to earn a draw.

And on Tuesday night City shocked Woking once again by taking the lead at the Kingfield Stadium through Pearson.

However, the tie turned on the sending off of Alejandro Santiago before Payne equalised from the resulting free-kick.

City battled in the second half but Goddard scored what turned out to be the decisive goal with 17 minutes remaining.

Justin Merritt's side return to Vanarama Conference North action on Saturday with a trip to league leaders AFC Fylde.

PREMIERSHIP RUGBY IN OXFORD - BE PART OF IT

Appleton – Hoskins can be great for us

HEAD coach Michael Appleton is backing Will Hoskins to make an impact on his return from injury.

The forward came on as a second half substitute in last Saturday's goalless draw against Dagenham & Redbridge after three months out with a groin injury.

Hoskins looked relatively sharp after only featuring in one development game since his injury and Appleton hopes the striker can stay fit.

He told the club: "I'm delighted to see Will back on the pitch.

"I think he could be great for us, a great asset and he certainly has got bags of ability.

"The fitter and stronger he gets, the more dangerous he is going to be for the opposition."

However, fellow striker Pat Hoban was denied his first taste of action on Tuesday night.

The Irishman was due to play in a development game against Thame United but the match was called off due to a waterlogged pitch.

Hoban signed for the club in November and would have been eligible to play from the beginning of this month before he was sidelined with an ankle injury.

Meanwhile, United received some good news with regard to the hamstring injury that forced James Roberts off against Dagenham.

The 18-year-old, who has already been out with a hamstring injury this season, pulled up again at the weekend.

However, the injury does not seem to be as bad as first feared.

Roberts told the club: "It doesn't feel anywhere near as bad as the first injury and I am hoping to be back quickly.

"I'll obviously listen to the advice from the physio and make sure that I do everything correctly throughout my rehab work."

Meanwhile, United have missed out on bringing full-back Joe Riley back to the club after the 22-year-old signed a two-and-a-half year deal at Sky Bet League Two rivals Bury.

Riley made 22 appearances for United during a five-month loan spell from Bolton Wanderers earlier this season.

Ardley struggle against Flackwell

IT was a disappointing weekend for Ardley United on Saturday, as they were beaten 3-1 at home to Flackwell Heath.

Conor Ingram managed to grab Ardley's only goal of the match in the 78th minute, as he headed home Harry Brock's cross.

But it was not enough, condemning Ardley to their second successive home defeat, which leaves them seventh in the Hellenic Premier Division table.

Elsewhere, Kidlington's top of the table clash with Highmoor Ibis ended in a goalless draw.

But their 3-2 win against Abingdon United on Tuesday night moved Kidlington within a point of the league leaders.

Milton United also enjoyed a win on Saturday, as their trip to Reading Town ended with a 2-0 win.

They've moved up to 14th in the table as a result, and are level on points with Oxford City Nomads.

Nomads match against strugglers Shrivenham on Saturday had to be called off because of the weather.

Milton and Kidlington are in Bluefin Challenge Cup action this Saturday, as they play Shortwood United and Tuffley Rovers respectively, while Ardley United face a trip to Highmoor Ibis in their league fixture.

Stars fire eight past Raiders

OXFORD City Stars are off the bottom of the National Ice Hockey League 1 table after a hard-fought 8-6 win against fellow strugglers London Raiders on Sunday night.

Stars got off to a fast start as Zsolt Mastaleriu fired in a shot in the opening three minutes from a Nick Oliver pass.

Alan Green doubled their advantage moments later, before Tom Davis and Liam Chong levelled the match for the Raiders by the end of the first period.

Stars were soon back in front as shots from Green, Josh Oliver and Evan Mackintosh made the score 5-2, before the Raiders pegged them back to 5-4 after goals from Grant Taylor and Vaclav Drabek.

Josh Florey and Andy Cox once again gave Stars a three-goal advantage, and again Raiders reduced the arrears following shots from Alan Lack and Taylor.

But a Joe Oliver own goal meant that Stars secured an 8-6 victory and pick up only their fifth win of the season.

Stars are now eighth in the table after jumping above Raiders and Cardiff Devils, and have 10 points after 22 matches.

They will hope for another strong performance when they travel to the Isle of Wight to face Wightlink Raiders on Saturday and the Devils on Sunday.

BTCC ace Plato leaves MG squad

OXFORD-BASED British Touring Car Championship driver Jason Plato has left MG after the team announced the signing of 2013 champion Andrew Jordan.

The MG team, operated by Triple Eight Racing, revealed that Jordan had been brought in to replace Plato last week.

Plato had been driving for MG since 2012, winning 20 of his 90 races for the team and finishing in the top-three positions in the championship on each occasion.

Last year saw Plato end the year as runner-up, but he and the team have decided to part company ahead of the 2015 season.

MG team principal Ian Harrison said: "We thank Jason for his contribution over the past three seasons – we had a pretty good go at it.

"We wish him luck this year, and I am sure we will be firing broadsides at each other throughout the season."

Plato has yet to announce his plans for 2015, and it is currently unknown whether he will return to the BTCC for his 17th season.

Sport Bites

RL sign trio

RUGBY LEAGUE: Oxford RL have announced three new signings as the squad prepares for the 2015 season, which starts next month.

Centre Harry Kaufman and props Chris Palser-Thorne and Simon Price have all moved to the Iffley Road-based side in the past week.

Team manager Ryan Cousins said: "I'm looking forward to seeing how they develop through the season and I'm sure they will be very useful additions to the squad."

Draw for Uni

HOCKEY: Honours were even in Oxford University's match against Staines on Saturday, with the game ending 2-2.

Thomas Jackson and Ollie Lobo were on the scoresheet for University, who currently sit eighth on the South Hockey League Premier Division with 11 points.

Local rivals Oxford Hawks' match against Northampton Saints was called off.

Canter through

TENNIS: Abingdon tennis ace Alexis Canter is into the last eight of the Delhi ITF Juniors competition after beating Hua-Chen Yu in three sets.

Number two seed Canter beat the Taiwanese player 4-6, 6-4, 6-3 to set up a clash with Indian player Udayan Bhakar, due to take place today.

If he wins, Canter will face either Cing-Yang Meng of Taiwan or Norwegian Rana-Roop Singh Bhullar in the semi-final tomorrow.

Defeat for 'Quins and Grove rugby

OXFORD Harlequins lost their 11th match of the season on Saturday, succumbing to a 20-3 defeat at home to Bracknell.

The visitors got off to a fast start and were 8-0 up at the break, and it was well into the second half that 'Quins broke their duck with a penalty kick.

Defeat leaves 'Quins sitting 10th in the National League 3 South West standings with 27 points from 16 games.

They will be hoping for better luck in their next match, which sees them make the trip to Hornets this Saturday.

Elsewhere, it was also a miserable weekend for Grove as they were beaten 36-8 by Windsor in what was their heaviest defeat of the season.

The scores had been close at half-time, as Grove trailed by just two points following a Joe Bellinger try and Guy Nicholl penalty, before Windsor romped to victory in the second half.

It means Grove are ninth in the South West 1 East table with 32 points from 16 games.

Grove will be looking to put last weekend's match behind them when they take on Bletchley at home on Saturday afternoon.

Late header denies Railwaymen to extend winless run

CONCANNON: NO NEED TO PANIC

DIDCOT Town's joint boss Ian Concannon says there is no cause to panic after a late equaliser saw Shortwood United hold his side to a 2-2 draw at Loop Meadow on Tuesday night.

Josh Klein-Davis' 85th minute header extended Diddy's winless run in Division One South & West to three games after successive defeats to AFC Totton and Larkhall Athletic.

It is a turn in results for the Railwaymen who had been unbeaten in 17 league games before the defeat at Totton on January 6.

However, the Railwaymen remain third in the league and Concannon is backing his side to get back to winning ways.

He said: "You are not going to go through a season without having a bit of a sticky patch.

"It is two defeats in 20 games. If you look at it that way the picture is a bit rosier.

"There's no panic on and we're still third in the table.

"If we have a blip and we're third in the table there can't be too much wrong."

Didcot face second place Taunton Town at Loop Meadow on Saturday and after failing to keep a clean sheet since December 9, Concannon says his side need to tighten up in all areas of the pitch.

He added: "We have only kept six clean sheets in 35 games which, with the players we have in our side, is not good enough.

"We have to make sure we are tight all over the park, it just relieves pressure."

Concannon continued: "The lads know that January is tough but if we want to be up there at the end of the season we have got to be beating the top teams.

"We have got to get back to what we were doing just before Christmas and that is winning games of football."

Didcot captain Luke Carnell, who was sent off against Larkhall, is available this weekend and for Tuesday's match against Shortwood.

He will begin his three-match suspension on January 24 when Diddy make the trip to Cinderford Town.

Sound Advice from Hearingcare

Hearing is one of our most important senses and like eyesight should be looked after.

Hearing is a sense which when lost can isolate people in a world where they fear going out and socialising because they just can't hear and understand. Losing hearing also denies people the joy of the simpler things in life like the birds singing in the trees or communicating with family and friends.

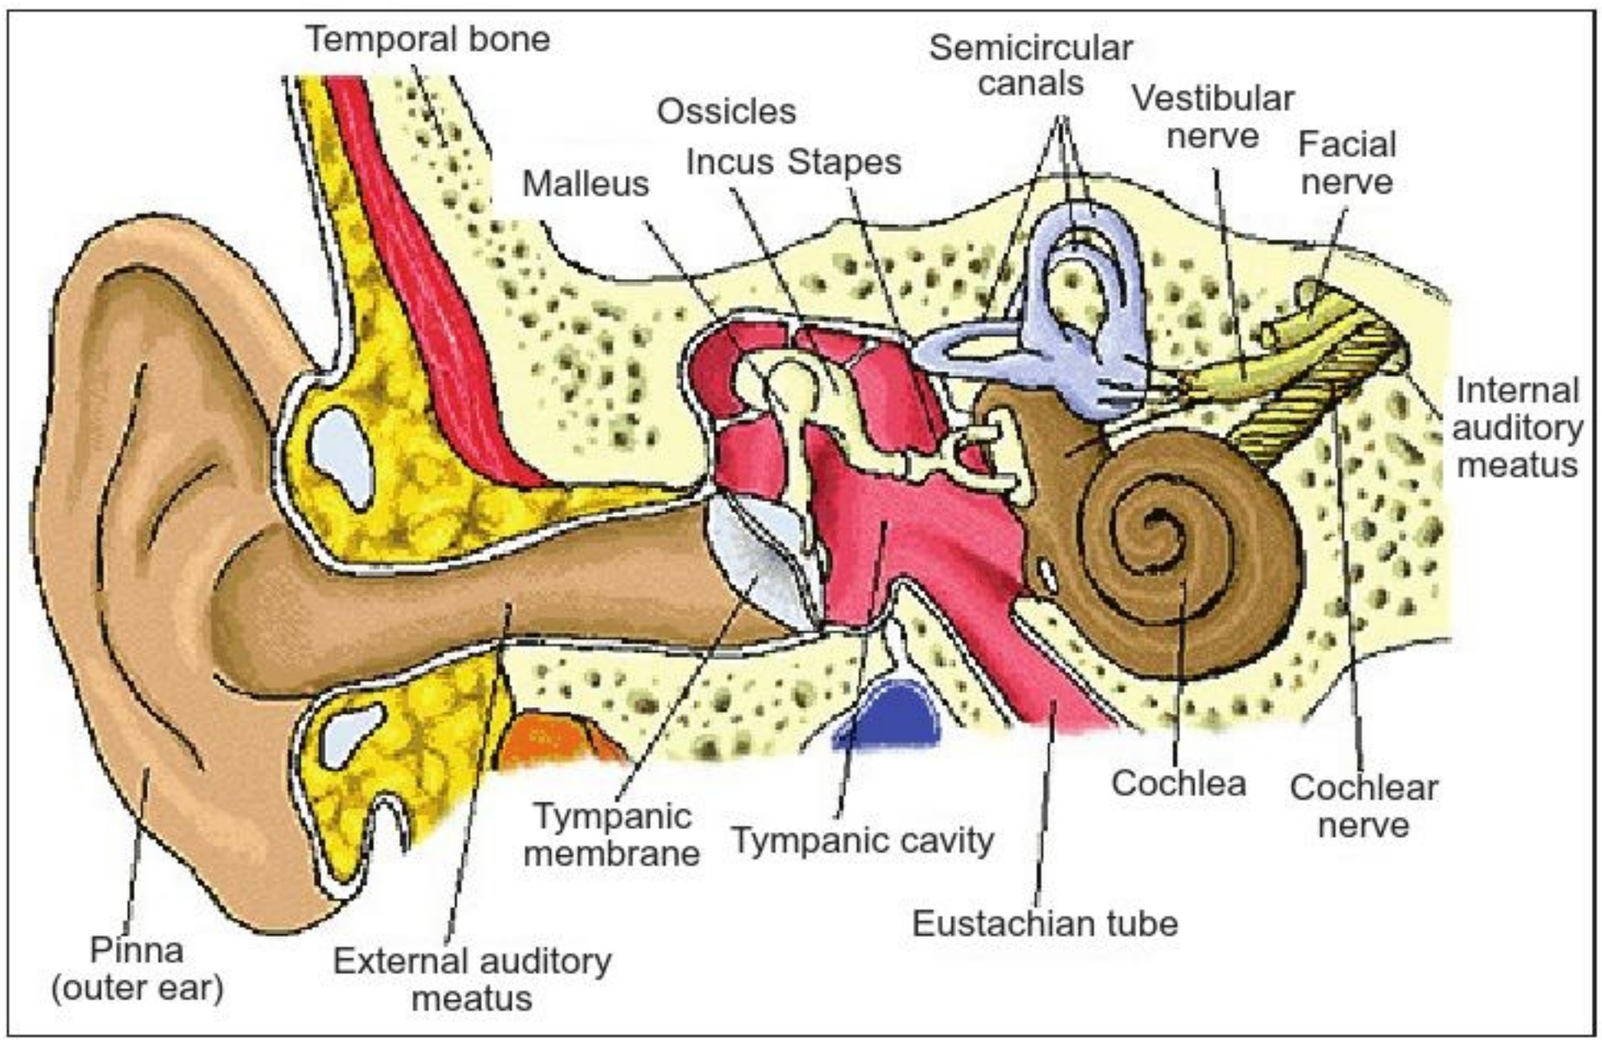
Peta and Keith of Keith Donaghy Hearingcare, based in Witney and Banbury, believe people should treat hearing difficulties as seriously as they would if they had poor eyesight. Keith Donaghy, a qualified hearing aid audiologist for 27 years, travels the length and breadth of the county testing peoples hearing and fitting discreet custom made hearing aids to restore sound to their lives.

The company also offers a comprehensive aftercare service to fine tune and re-adjust the aids to make sure that they are working to the best of their ability and most specifically for each client's needs. Peta, who also works at both centres, said the joy of their profession is seeing people who have not heard properly for sometimes many years cry with joy at simple things. She said "I think that's why my husband does this job"

Peta says that when people start losing their hearing they should have it tested as soon as possible. If people have regular hearing checks then problems can be detected earlier rather than later which will help in bringing their hearing back to as near normal as possible with an appropriate hearing aid system.

Hearing aids are so efficient now that they can distinguish between background noise and speech, they can enhance speech thereby making it clearly heard whilst controlling the level of background noise. If people started wearing hearing aids as soon as they had a problem then they would adjust more easily to hearing again. If people wait several years after becoming hard of hearing, then the brain takes a lot longer to adjust.

With age related hearing problems the higher frequency sounds deteriorate first making sounds like the telephone, birdsong, and voices muffled and unclear. Keith Donaghy said that being unable to hear properly can have social implications which can leave people reluctant to go out and socialize. People can stop going to church, going to the pub or on trips as they can't hear or understand and are frightened of mishearing people or missing instructions and important information.



Hearing aids can cost anything up to and over £1000.00 but can last for five years or more. Each aid is individually crafted to fit each person's ear perfectly, they have vents which allow the ears to breathe and are hypoallergenic making them very comfortable to wear.

Peta Donaghy warned prospective customers to be careful about online offers and to consider that "you get what you pay for". She said that Keith Donaghy Hearing care is an independent company and can offer completely impartial advice and an aftercare service that is vital to make sure things run smoothly for the future of the patient and their hearing aid system.
